What is HEARTH?

Helping Elderly Adults Remain in Their Homes (HEARTH) is a program to provide support services including in-home assistance with personal care and hygiene, baking and meal preparation, housekeeping and laundry, errands and shopping, and more.

Contact Information

To request services or for more information about HEARTH Services offered by Brookings Health System:

Phone:
(605) 696-8090 or visit us at brookingshealth.org

Where are we located?
Brookings Health System
HEARTH
100 22nd Avenue
Brookings SD, 57006

Mailing address:
300 22nd Avenue
Brookings SD, 57006

Office Hours:
Monday–Friday
8:00 a.m.–4:30 p.m.
HEARTH is paid for by:

- The individual or family needing help
- South Dakota Department of Human Services
- Individual insurance programs

Referrals for services may be made by persons in need, community or family members, friends, or physicians.

HEARTH services can:

- Prevent or delay a move to institutional care
- Promote and facilitate independence in familiar surroundings
- Ease the burden of family members caring for loved ones
- Provide continuity of care
- Provide professionally supervised care
- Provide nurse assistance with medication management and assessments

Professional Care is Priority

Care providers include licensed nurses, personal care assistants, and homemakers.

HEARTH serves the residents of Brookings county and the adjacent county areas.